Manitoba government appoints nine new members

Winnipeg, MB (CKLQ) - Nine new members have been appointed to the Manitoba Art Council.

Two of those members come from Brandon, as Kathy Moscou and Dr. Leanne Zacharias have accepted positions.

Moscou is a pharmacist and visual artist. Her pieces explore issues of race, identity and culture and have been exhibited at galleries across Canada.

For Dr. Zacharias, she is an associate professor of music at Brandon University and an accomplished cellist, educator and interdisciplinary artist. She is also on the faculty of Domaine Forget International Music Academy and co-directs Brandon's Wheat City Nuit Blanche and Wild Studio summer workshop.

The Manitoba Arts Council is funded through Manitoba Sport, Culture and Heritage and operates an agency to administer grants to professional individuals and organizations in areas such as literacy, performing, visual arts, and education.

Among the new members is Roberta Christianson from High Bluff who will now chair the council. She previously chaired the Manitoba Arts Council from 1993 to 2001.
